IQAC Meeting (Online)

October 19, 2021 at 10:00 am

The meeting was convened to evaluate the progress of IQAC in preparing for SSR submission. The attendees of the meeting were welcomed by our Director Rev. Dr. Koshy Isaac Punnamoottil. Our Principal, Dr. John P.C. briefed on the progress of the IQAC and the impending preparations for the IIQA submission. He in particular mentioned that over the past one year a number of activities to build training for staff was undertaken.

NAAC Visit Coordinator, Ms. Reeya Susan John presented the progress report of the NAAC Accreditation process, regarding the work done under various criteria heads and how some of these criteria made a mention of the additional information that law colleges should furnish.

Mr. Jacob Punnoose appreciated the progress and commented in support of the NAAC process. Mr. Punnoose mentioned that when the college secures 50% of the ranks in Kerala University, it is a sign of unparalleled achievement for the college. He also mentioned that NAAC is a process through which everyone builds awareness on the functioning of the college.

Ms. Haritha G H, alumna of college made a mention of the fact that in future the college could work towards improving the library and incorporating extra-curricular activities. Advocate Parameshwaran and Advocate Arvind also spoke on the occasion to express appreciation for the growth of activities in college. Finally, Arathy Anna George also made a mention of the fact that the college could adopt additional activities to foster an environment of learning.

Dr. Thomaskutty P.G., Vice Principal and IQAC Coordinator proposed vote of thanks to all the members of the NAAC Committees for participation and valuable feedback. He said that all the hard work done for NAAC would benefit us in the future goals of the college. He thanked all members for their continuous support and requested for cooperation in the future endeavour of the college.
